

PTCS

Proton Therapy Center Switzerland AG

10 Will there be radiation from the building structure?

This can be ruled out as well. There are suitable safety precautions in place to prevent any release of proton irradiation out of the building structure during normal operation. That is why it is possible to dismantle a proton therapy center without problems.